Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The Applicant failed to include the serial number of the case to the disclosure filed 02/27/2004, therefore, the disclosure was not considered.

Appropriate correction is required for consideration.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-19 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Consider claim 1, the best prior art found during the examination of the present application, Wu (U.S. Pub. No. 2006/0165465 A1) discloses an apparatus comprising a bendable keymat, a cover, and a substrate located within the cover comprising a plurality of key switches, wherein, said keymat comprises a plurality of lips located at and extending outward from edges of said keymat toward a rim of the cover and a plurality of pressure transmitters extending from an interior surface of the keymat, and said cover comprises a plurality of indentations configured to receive said plurality of lips, wherein the bendable keymat comprises elastic properties that force the lips into the plurality of indentations on the cover to attach the edges of the keymat to the cover, and said indentations are located at edges of a recess for re-movably mounting said keymat, the cover also includes a plurality of apertures through which the plurality of pressure transmitters pass to activate the plurality of key switches.

Wu fails to specifically disclose that the keymat is elastomeric, and is configured so that an entirety of the bendable elastomeric keymat bends and a plurality of locking parts extending from the cover adjacent the indentations that, along with the elastic properties of the keymat, force the lips of the keymat into the indentations.

Therefore, this limitation, in conjunction with the other limitations recited in claims are novel and unobvious in view of Wu, and the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".
